- (3) fulfillment of performance evaluation indicators by the directors and senior management;
- (4) estimates used for the formulation of performance-based remuneration packages of the Company.

Chapter 4 Meetings of the Committee

Clause 17 Meetings of the Committee can be classified as regular meeting and extraordinary meeting.

Clause 18 The Committee shall hold at least one regular meetings every year, and the notice of the meeting shall be served to all members three days before such meeting.

Clause 19 The Committee may convene extraordinary meetings when necessary. In any of the following circumstances, the chairman of the Committee shall issue a notice to convene a meeting within three days:

- (1) in circumstances as deemed necessary by the board of directors;
- (2) in circumstances as deemed necessary by the chairman of the Committee;
- (3) when proposed by two or more members of the Committee.

- Clause 20 The Board Secretary's Office shall issue the notice of meeting in writing to each of the Committee members and relevant persons being invited to attend the meeting three days prior to the date of the meeting (except in special circumstances where the requirement of a prior notice is exempted, provided that the chairman of the meeting shall provide explanation at the meeting). The notice of meeting shall contain information on the form, time, venue, duration and agenda of the meeting, time of issuance of the notice, name and contact information of the contact person of the meeting and other relevant information.
- Clause 21 Upon receipt of the notice, all Committee members shall promptly provide confirmation and relevant replies (including but not limited to the confirmation of attendance and other arrangement) via a proper means.
- Clause 22 All members of the Committee shall attend the meeting in person. If a member is unable to attend the meeting in person, such member shall, by signing and submitting a letter of proxy, authorize another member of the Committee to attend and express opinion at the meeting on his/her behalf. Such letter of proxy shall expressly state the scope and term of the authorization. Each member may appoint only one other member as his/her proxy to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf. Where a member authorizes two or more other members to exercise the voting right on his/her behalf, such authorization shall be invalid. In addition, no member shall accept any such authorization from two or more other members concurrently.

The members attending a meeting on behalf of another member shall exercise the rights within the scope of authorization. If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to exercise the rights on his/her behalf, nor does he/she submit any opinion in writing prior to the meeting, he/she shall be deemed to have waived his/her rights.

A member who is unable to attend a meeting in person may also exercise his/her rights by submitting in writing his/her opinion with respect to any matter on the meeting agenda, provided that such written opinion shall be submitted to the Board Secretary's Office before the meeting.

- Clause 23 If a member does not attend a meeting in person or authorize another member to attend such meeting on his/her behalf, nor does he/she submit any opinion in writing prior to the meeting on two consecutive occasions, or if such member fails to attend in person 3/4 of all meetings of the Committee held during any year, such member shall be deemed incapable of performing the duties of the Committee, and the board of directors may replace him/her in accordance with these Terms.
- Clause 24 The quorum of a Committee meeting shall be the presence of at least two members. Meetings of the Committee shall be presided over by the chairman of the Committee, who may appoint another member to act on his/her behalf when he/she is unable to attend the meeting. If the chairman of the Committee neither performs his/her duties nor designates another member to act on his/her behalf, any member may report the same to the board of directors, and the board of directors shall appoint another member who is an independent non-executive director to perform the duties of the chairman.

Chapter 5 Procedures of Meetings

- Clause 25 Each member of the Committee shall have one vote. A resolution of the meeting shall be passed by a simple majority of the votes of all members. In the event that the meeting fails to reach a valid resolution due to abstention of any member, the relevant matter shall be considered directly by the board of directors.

- Clause 26 Meetings of the Committee shall be held in the form of on-site meetings in general, and voting shall be conducted by a show of hands or by poll. Under special circumstances, on the premise that the members of the Committee are able to sufficiently express their opinions, with the consent of the chairman of the Committee, meetings may be held by means of correspondence. Where a meeting is conducted by means of correspondence, the Committee members shall submit to the board of directors their written opinions with respect to the matters to be discussed within the period prescribed by the notice of the meeting.
- Clause 27 All items on the agenda shall be discussed during the meeting of the Committee, and the Committee members shall explicitly, independently and fully express their opinions based on their own judgment. In the case of any different opinions, such different opinions shall be stated in the meeting minutes to be presented to the board of directors.
- Clause 28 The Committee may invite directors, related senior management members and relevant experts of the Company, external experts, scholars, intermediary agencies and other persons to sit in on the meeting. Such persons being invited shall give explanation and elaboration on any issues as required by any Committee member.
- Clause 29 Where necessary, the Committee may, upon approval by the board of directors, seek for professional advices of external professional personnel or organizations. Any reasonable cost so incurred shall be borne by the Company.
- Clause 30 If a member of the Committee is interested in any matter being considered by the Committee, such member shall abstain from the discussion and voting of such matter.
- Clause 31 All persons attending the Committee meetings shall keep all matters discussed at the meetings confidential and shall not disclose any such information without authorization.

Chapter 6 Minutes and Summary of the Committee Meetings

- Clause 32 Minutes shall be kept for all meetings of the Committee, which shall be prepared by the Board Secretary's Office and shall contain the following information:
- (1) serial number, form, date, venue and name of the chairman of the meeting;
 - (2) attendance of members in person or by proxy;
 - (3) name and title of each attendee;
 - (4) agenda of the meeting;
